

North American Missions Offering

The North American Baptist Fellowship is one of six regional fellowships that are part of the Baptist World Alliance. Jim Hill, the Executive Director of Churchnet, is currently serving as President of the North American Baptist Fellowship. George Bullard serves as General Secretary for the Fellowship. The North American Baptist Fellowship represents a diverse Baptist family of more than 20 million Baptists across the United States and Canada. The NABF collaborates with Baptists around the world through the Baptist World Alliance.

The Baptist General Convention of Missouri became a member of the North American Baptist Fellowship in January of 2006. We are grateful for the opportunity to partner with our Baptist brothers and sisters in North America for the cause of Christ. For more information about the North American Baptist Fellowship visit www.nabf.info.

Churchnet (a ministry of the Baptist General Convention of Missouri) is committed to working together to strengthen the work of the Baptist family around the world through prayer, networking, sharing resources, and cooperative ministry ventures. Send your gifts for the North American Missions Offering to Churchnet at P. O. Box 508, Jefferson City, MO 65102 or give online at www.churchnet.org.

Sharing Hope through the North American Missions Offering

Each year Churchnet receives an offering for North American Missions. The offering helps to support the work and mission efforts of the North American Baptist Fellowship. The NABF is one of the six regional fellowships of the Baptist World Alliance. We invite you to give generously to support this special offering.
